WIOD Conference: Industry-Level Analyses of Globalization and its Consequences, 26-28 May, Vienna

WIOD's first annual consortium meeting was held at the Vienna University of Technology. Next to researchers from the participating institutions, also other researchers were invited to present a paper on topics related to industry-level analyses of globalization and its consequences. A program, book of abstracts and presentation-slides can be found on the WIOD-website

The complete text of the keynote speech delivered by WTO-Deputy Director-General Alejandro Jara van be found at http://www.wto.org/english/news_e/news10_e/devel_26may10_e.htm.

Report on the Second WIOD Business Meeting, Vienna, 28 June 2010

On Friday 28 May, 2010, WIIW hosted the second WIOD business meeting in Vienna. The presentation slides and the meeting report are now available online on the Reports page of the WIOD-website. Note that this file is accessible for consortium members only. Please contact us at wiod@rug.nl if you are a member of the consortium and have trouble logging in.

WIOD deliverables

Three deliverables have recently been produced. These are:

- D6.2 (Report on methods for constructing IOTs from SUTs and on price aspects of harmonization of IOTs across countries), by WP6;
- D7.1 (Report on linking economic data and environmental indicators using panel data econometrics), by WP7;
- D8.1 (Report containing a literature review of studies on the factor contents of trade), by WP8.

The deliverables are now available online on the Reports page of the WIOD-website. Note that these files are accessible for consortium members only.

WIOD working paper series

Please take a look at the publications on the WIOD-website (<http://www.wiod.org/publications>), on which we posted the third and fourth WIOD working paper, respectively: "Joint Estimation of Supply and Use Tables", by Umed Temurshoev and Marcel Timmer, and "Preferential Trade Agreements and the Structure of International Trade", by Neil Foster and Robert Stehrer.

If you have papers for this series, please let us know.

Preliminary Database

A preliminary database with supply and use tables is now available on the WIOD-website. Note that this database is only accessible for workpackage-leaders (who have recently received a password). The database will be improved and extended in the next two years.

WIOD Sessions at the Input-Output Conference 2010 in Sydney

The 18th International Input-Output Conference was held in Sydney (June 20-25). José Manuel Rueda-Cantuche was chairman of the Scientific Programme Committee. At this conference, Erik Dietzenbacher and Bart Los organized two special sessions devoted to WIOD. In addition, a substantial number of consortium members attended the conference and presented their work. For more information about the program, see:

http://www.isa.org.usyd.edu.au/io_2010/program/index.html

Next meetings:

- Early December 2010: one-day projectboard meeting in Amsterdam
- May 2011: full consortium meeting in Seville
- The consortium meeting in Seville is immediately followed by the modeling-meeting for WP7-WP9.

In the near future, presentations about WIOD will be given at the following occasions:

- IGU Conference 2010, Wellbeing, Innovation and Spatial Transformation, (July 1-4, Groningen)
- Keynote address at the 8th Chinese Input-Output Conference (August 17-19, 2010, Weihai)
- WORLD KLEMS conference (August 18-19, 2010, Harvard University, Boston)
- Conference of the International Association for Research in Income and Wealth (IARIW) (August 21-27, 2010, Sankt Gallen, Switzerland)
- OECD workshop on global value chains (September 21, 2010 Paris)
- International conference on Productivity in East Asia (October 20, 2010, Seoul)
- Conference "The Structure of Economic Systems: Europe and the International Perspective" (October 21-22, 2010, Rome)
- RIETI-Hitotsubashi Asian KLEMS conference (October 22, 2010)
- North American Meetings of the Regional Science Association International (November 10-13, Denver)

Finally, we would like to wish you a nice summer holiday!
